Carol Levine

Carol Levine directs the United Hospital Fund's Families and Health Care Project, which focuses on developing partnerships between health care professionals and family caregivers, especially during transitions in health care settings (www.nextstepincare.org). She has a BA from Cornell University (Phi Beta Kappa) and an MA from Columbia University in Public Law and Government. She was editor of the Hastings Center Report and is now a Hastings Center Fellow. In 1993 she was awarded a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship for her work in AIDS policy and ethics. She was named a WebMD Health Hero in 2007 and a Civic Ventures Purpose Prize Fellow in 2009. She was co-chair of the Fund's Transitions in Care Quality Improvement Collaborative (TC-QuIC). She edited Always On Call: When Illness Turns Families into Caregivers (2nd ed., Vanderbilt University Press, 2004), and with Thomas H. Murray, co-edited The Cultures of Caregiving: Conflict and Common Ground among Families, Health Professionals and Policy Maker (Johns Hopkins University Press, 2004). In 2014 she published two books: *Living in the Land of Limbo: Fiction and Poetry about Caregiving (*Vanderbilt University Press) and Planning for Long-Term Care for Dummies (Wiley).
