Dear Colleagues:

Our 2018 State Society on Aging of New York (SSA) Conference will be held at The Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs, New York from Wednesday, October 24th through Friday, October 26th. We invite submissions to this year's annual conference program from individuals in all areas of gerontology and geriatrics, as well as allied fields, including academicians, researchers, service providers, administrators, policy makers, clinicians, private practitioners, students, older adults, and others interested in the field of aging.

This year the theme of the conference is, “Building a Culture of Health and Well-Being for All Ages.” This year's theme focuses on solutions focused strategies, especially related to how individuals, organizations, and communities can work together to build a healthier and more equitable and age-friendly society both locally and globally. We especially invite presenters to share about their research and practices that help to build a culture of health and well-being for individuals of all ages and their families and communities. We are especially seeking presentations on strategies that: (1) promote and educate about the shared value of health, (2) foster interagency collaboration, (3) address systemic environmental and policy conditions that influence access to health and social equality for diverse groups, and/or (4) integrate health and other service systems and improve access to quality care. We also welcome submissions on innovations that target one or more of the eight domains of age friendly cities and communities: the built environment, transportation, housing, social participation, respect and social inclusion, civic participation and employment, communication, and community support and health services.

The annual conference encourages participation through papers, posters, and artistic work. Accepted submissions will be presented at designated paper or poster sessions. Creative expressions on aging-related topics may be submitted for exhibition in the conference's artist corner. As always, students are especially encouraged to submit their papers for consideration for the Student Paper Awards and to present their work at the conference. Abstract submissions for papers, posters and artistic projects must be submitted online NO LATER than by Wednesday, June 20, 2018. Acceptance notifications will be emailed in mid-July. All presenters must register for the conference prior to the publication of the conference book.

We look forward to seeing you in beautiful Saratoga Springs!

Kind regards,

Tina Maschi, PhD, LCSW, ACSW
SSA President, 2018

Criteria for Evaluation

Applicants do not need to be members of SSA to submit abstracts. All abstracts will be peer reviewed for their relevance to the needs of an aging society, scholarship quality, and scholarship content including originality of ideas or methods.

Conference Attendance and Registration

If an abstract is accepted, it is assumed that the first author or organizing chair will take responsibility to ensure its presentation. If the first author is unable or unavailable to deliver the presentation, alternate arrangements for the presentation delivery must be made, with appropriate notification given to the program chair. You must register for the conference in order to be able to present. Please register for conference at the SSA website: www.ssany.org

Presentation Formats

Paper Sessions (25 minutes each presenter: 20 min. presentation, 5 min. questions)

Successful papers will report on completed research, describe program experiences or a model of practice, or present a sound analysis of a current issue in aging. Papers may have single or multiple authors. The program committee may not be able to accept all paper submissions or honor more specific requests regarding paper sessions due to time constraints in the program. If your abstract is not accepted for a paper session, please indicate on the submission form if you would like to have it considered for a poster session. The SSA Program Committee will group accepted papers by theme into sessions facilitated by moderators of its selection.

Posters (60 minutes)

Posters report on completed research, describe program experiences or a model of practice, or present an analysis of a current issue in aging. Posters can have single or multiple authors. The interactive poster sessions feature authors presenting ideas visually but also discussing the material and concepts one-on-one with colleagues. Posters display information visually, relying on graphic representations (e.g., tables, pictures or charts), and may benefit from a simple, clear design and appropriate use of color. The posters are grouped together in a single room or common area and displayed for designated one-hour sessions.

Artist Corner

We are requesting submissions of original prose, poetry, artwork and other artistic works that reflect themes related to aging.

Membership

To become a member of the State Society on Aging of New York, which entitles you to a membership rate on registration fees, or to receive all future mailings, please explore the membership section of our website at <http://ssany.org>.

Student Submissions

Students, both graduate and undergraduate, are encouraged to submit abstracts for regular conference presentation and written papers for the student paper competition. There will be opportunities to meet other students and professionals in the field. Presenting a paper or poster gives students professional recognition for their work, a chance to meet fellow students and professionals, and potential opportunities for career development.

Students have two options for submitting scholarly papers to the SSA Conference:

Presentation of Paper and Student Award Consideration: To be considered for presentation and the student award, students must both

(1) submit an abstract using the Survey Monkey link on <http://ssany.org> or directly at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SSA2018> and

(2) submit a copy of the abstract and complete paper by email to Mary Ann Erickson, SSA Past President at merickson@ithaca.edu, noting which student award is being applied for. Awards are made for: (a) best paper by a graduate student, (b) best paper by an undergraduate student. Papers that demonstrate independent critical thinking and that make a contribution to the field are given priority. The deadline for both submissions is June 20, 2018.

Presentation of Paper Only: Students may submit an abstract for review in a regular conference presentation without being considered for the student award. If submitting an abstract for regular conference presentation only, please complete the abstract submission form via the Survey Monkey link on <http://ssany.org> or directly at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SSA2018> by June 20, 2018.

Winners of the student paper competition in each of the two categories will receive a scholarship award to cover conference registration and present their work at the conference. Limited scholarship funds will be available to defray students' conference registration fees. For student scholarship information, visit www.ssany.org. Award winners and students presenting papers or posters will receive preference for scholarships.

Questions concerning the student awards may be directed to Student Committee Chairperson Eunice Flemister at efleimester@hramsonostos.cuny.edu
